

Ed Europa Privacy Policy

Effective Date: February 2, 2024

1. Introduction

Ed Europa ("we," "us," "our") is committed to protecting the privacy and security of our students' personal data. This Privacy Policy outlines our practices regarding the collection, use, and disclosure of your personal data when you use our services for studying abroad. We are fully compliant with European Union data protection laws, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

2. Data Collection

We collect personal data from students for the purpose of facilitating their study abroad programs. This data may include, but is not limited to:

- Personal identification information (name, date of birth, nationality, passport details)
- Contact information (email address, phone number, home address)
- Academic records
- Health information
- Financial information
- Travel arrangements

3. Data Use

Your personal data will be used solely for:

- Administering your study abroad program
- Ensuring your safety and well-being
- Complying with legal requirements
- Communicating with you regarding your program

4. Data Protection

We take all necessary measures to ensure the security and confidentiality of your personal data in compliance with EU data protection laws. We implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your data against unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction.

5. Data Rights

You have the right to access, rectify, and delete your personal data held by Ed Europa. To exercise these rights, please contact us at sales@edeuropa.com.

6. Data Sharing

We may share your personal data with affiliated institutions and third-party service providers as necessary for the administration of your study abroad program. All third parties are obligated to protect your data in compliance with EU laws.

7. Responsibilities

Upon arrival in your destination country, you are solely responsible for your actions and behavior. Any misconduct or violation of local laws may result in consequences, including legal action, expulsion from the program, or denial of entry into the destination country.

8. Updates to this Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on our website with the updated effective date.
